Peter Richards was up on a charge of stealing a bull at Lesser Slave Lake. McDonald for the Crown and Wallbridge for the defence. The prisoner was acquitted.

Foraisa Novokrysh, a half-breed, answered to a charge of housebreaking and theft. He was accused of breaking into the Hudson Bay store at Lesser Slave Lake and taking a quantity of goods. McDonald for the Crown, Gariepy for the defence. The prisoner was acquitted.

WHEAT CUT JULY 29

J. M. Logan, of Stony Plain, is the first man of this district to report having commenced cutting this year's crop. On Tuesday, July 28th, he cut a small patch of winter wheat which he had tried as a test. The seed was brought from Southern Kansas, and is known as the Pultz winter wheat. It was sown about the middle of last August and came through the winter in excellent shape. Though only a small patch was sown, Mr. Logan is satisfied with the result and will sow all the yield this fall.

Other crops are looking fine and a bountiful harvest of wheat, oats and barley is expected if the weather holds favorable for a few weeks longer.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

Wednesday.
Queen's—H. T. Brewitt, Bruderheim; Ralph Scott, Smuttis Falls; J. Godard, J. B. Godard, Fort Saskatchewan; Miss L. Lamoureux, Miss Cecile Guerin, Lamoureux.
Alberta—Arthur Mowat, Toronto; A. E. Clendinning, Edmonton; J. S. Chamberlain, J. G. Kerr, Winnipeg.
Windsor—J. K. Patton, J. P. Wilton, W. Carter, Toronto; E. A. Skinner, W. Carter, Toronto; J. J. Morris, Chicago; J. L. B. Beland, Montreal; Miss H. B. Bishop, Winnipeg; L. J. A. Lambert, M. L. A. St. Albert.
Victoria—J. H. McLean, Ray, Jas. McGillis, Miss Maggie McGillis, Miss Kate McDonald, Camille; E. Graham, Fort Saskatchewan.

—Work is being rushed through for the new St. Elmo hotel on Fraser avenue, north of the fire hall. It is 72 feet long and has a frontage of 56 feet. There are twenty-one bedrooms, a large dining room, parlor and sitting room. A license has been applied for but has not yet been granted. However, the hotel will be opened in about two weeks. J. Livingston is the proprietor.

LOCAL

—The post office has been given a general cleaning up and the walls have been whitewashed.

—All local lacrosse players are requested to turn out on the old race track this evening for practice.

—The Strathcona lacrosse club will visit Edmonton tomorrow evening and play a game with the local team.

—An effort is being made to have a full attendance at the football practice on the old race track this evening.

—There will be a practice of the Edmonton cricket club this evening at 7.30 on the exhibition grounds for all members.

—Mrs. Berthelme, proprietress of the Gold boarding house, has had to go to the General Hospital to undergo an operation.

—McDougal & Seord purchased Fred Brink's furs yesterday for $11,610. Mr. Brink's trading post is at Fort Vermilion on the Peace river.

—A party of forty men with ten teams are at present engaged in grading the site of the Canadian Northern station yards on the Hudson Bay reserve.

—The Oddfellows held a very successful All House in Hourston's hall last evening, the occasion being a presentation of a Past Grand jewel to Mrs. McKay, late of Rossland, B. C.

—A tennis tournament has been arranged between players from the McDougal club and the Young Men's Institute. The games commence this evening and will be played on the court of the Institute. Good tennis is expected and visitors are welcome.

—Working on the ground that a poor excuse is better than none, a Calgary newspaper explains away their recent defeat at Red Deer by saying that their team was a patched up one. The score stood, Calgary, runs 1, errors 10; Red Deer, runs 15, errors 4.

—A private wire from Regina this morning states that Miss Clara Oliver has been successful in the recent examinations for first-class teachers' certificate and Miss Anna Oliver for second class. Full reports will be announced in a day or two.

—The police court has been very quiet of late. The only thing that has happened to break the monotony was a couple of cases Tuesday morning, where persons had incurred a little too freely. One was fined $3 and costs and the other $1 and costs.

—The police have been going the rounds this week gathering in the fees collected under the recent special license fee bylaw. Only seven real estate agents have paid as yet but none have refused. Several insurance agents and others have also paid their license fees.

—Saskatchewan Times—W. D. Dutton, manager for D. A. McArthur, contractor on the main line of the C. N. R. east of Clarke Crossing, was in town Saturday. Mr. Dutton reported that the Times that they expected to reach the North Branch this fall, and they were in need of men. He also stated that McArthur & Mann have a large gang of men constructing a bridge across the Saskatchewan at Clarke Crossing.

—The funeral of the late Arthur W. O'Brien was held yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from All Saints' church to the Edmonton cemetery. A large number attended the funeral, among whom were twenty members of the Strathcona Horse. Mr. O'Brien served in the recent war in No. 2 troop, C Squadron of the Strathconas. The pall bearers were Messrs. Norquay, Walker, Sharples, Pierson, Tucker and Anderson.

—The painting in exhibition in McKenna's book store, by Mr. P. C. Kidson of this town, is attracting a great deal of attention. It is copied from R. Caton Woodville's famous painting entitled "All That Was Left of Them," representing the last stand of a number of the Seventeenth Lancasters at Modersfontein, in the recent South African war. Mr. Kidson's work is receiving very favorable comment and criticism. The picture exhibits remarkably the facial expression of the soldiers as they fought on momentarily expecting death from the whizzing Boer bullets.

—We have heard several complaints of newcomers from the old country not getting all the mail that they were sure was coming to them. Perhaps the following clipping from the Saskatoon Phoenix will explain the cause. "Not a few Englishmen of the Barr colony have repeatedly complained of letters from England having gone astray. The following is the address written on a letter received at the post office here a few days ago and it wouldn't send any letter 'wandering' we are not much good at guessing. The address reads thus:—Mr. John Neish, North Bay, North Shore, Kakakbekka, Saskatchewan, Indian Head, Ontario, Canada, Fort William, Try Saskatoon."

PERSONAL

Rev. Mr. Phillips, of Vancouver, is visiting at the Methodist parsonage, Edmonton.

J. O. Scott of Ottawa, has arrived in Edmonton to work on the construction of the new Alberta hotel.

Rev. Mr. Holmes, dean of Rupert's Land, uncle of Mr. A. Fraser, manager of the Merchants Bank, Edmonton, is in the city today.

J. S. Chamberlain, of Ingersoll, Ontario, arrived in Edmonton last night from Winnipeg to take a position in the Alberta barber shop.

Ira Peterson, of the Merchants bank, Red Deer, has been spending a couple of days in Edmonton visiting his brother on the staff of the same bank here. He left for Red Deer yesterday morning.

George Fugard, of San Diego, California, well-known in Edmonton at the time of the Klondike rush, is spending a few days in the city. He is accompanied by Mr. W. A. Bonduant, of Los Angeles.

THE NEW ALBERTA HOTEL

When completed the new Alberta hotel will be one of the finest structures in the city. It will have a frontage of 68 feet on Jasper avenue and 70 feet on Fraser avenue, and will be composed of four stories besides the basement. The first story will be built of Calgary stone, and the other three stories of cut stone and pressed brick. A handsome tower, covered with graduated Spanish tiles, on the southwest corner of the building, will run up another story and add much to the attractiveness of the building. The main entrance to the hotel will be from the corner of Jasper and Fraser avenues. There will also be side entrances from both these avenues. The main rotunda will be 44 feet by 38 feet. Off this will open the offices, writing rooms, etc. The bar will open off Jasper avenue. A waiting room opens onto Fraser avenue, and off the waiting room is the handsome large dining room, 29 feet by 38 feet. In the basement there will be large billiard rooms, a barber shop and bathroom. In the new building will be 55 bedrooms, with parlors, sitting rooms, bath rooms, etc. on each floor. The stairs and seats will all be finished in the best of old oak. There will be four steel balconies, two overlooking each street.

A light shaft will lead from the roof to the first floor and a most elaborate system of electric lighting will be installed. The hotel will be fitted with excellent fire escape and fire protection systems. A 2 1/2 inch water pipe, with hose connections on each floor, will run throughout the entire building. The hotel will be steam heated, and provision will be made for elevator and telephone systems. A system of return call bells is being installed.

There is scarcely any need to remark on the excellence of the hotel building as it is almost self-evident from the above memoranda. Suffice it to say that the hotel will be strictly up-to-date in every particular. It will cost in the neighborhood of fifty-five thousand dollars, and is to be completed by December 15. J. E. Wise is the architect, and R. J. Manson has the contract.

Bulletin Correspondence.

Notwithstanding the lateness of the session and the important business yet to be transacted the greater part of yesterday was occupied by a discussion which was started by Mr. Bourassa on the evils of stock gambling and the desirability of preventing it as far as possible. When it is remembered that Mr. Bourassa had no remedy to offer for the evils of which he spoke, it will be seen how purposeless the debate was. On the other hand the fact that it was kept up with interest by members on both sides shows how deeply interested are the people of Canada in the question. This interest is, of course, accentuated by the tremendous fall in the prices of favorite stocks and the widespread failures which have resulted. A year ago eastern Canada was buzzing from top to bottom and from end to end with stock speculation, and the talk of the street was not in regard to crops or industries, but of profits on deals in stocks. Such a condition could only have one ending, the one that has been reached within the past few months. The wonder is not that there have been losses, but that there has not been a general collapse and condition of panic as the result of the bursting of the boom for that is practically what has occurred. Yesterday was the day upon which either the redistribution bill or the Grand Trunk Pacific proposals were expected by the House and the fact that the day was taken up by an academic discussion precipitated by a government supporter was generally taken to indicate that neither measure was ready. In the case of the redistribution bill the reason is probably the complicated nature of its provisions, but in the case of the Grand Trunk Pacific it is generally believed that the cause of delay is much more serious; and that the change of conditions resulting, and such as may possibly result, from the resignation of Mr. Blair has made it desirable to modify the arrangement at first entered into with the Grand Trunk Pacific company as announced with such a flourish of trumpets by the Toronto News and Globe, the mouthpieces of the Grand Trunk Pacific. It is a peculiar feature of the case that although the merits of the scheme have been largely debated, the House or country have not yet any official knowledge of its principles or details except such as may be gathered from the letters which passed between the premier and the ex-minister on the occasion of the latter's resignation. It would seem as though the Globe and News had been anxious to commit the government and its followers to certain details of the scheme which were still under consideration, but in taking this course they merely proved themselves to be too smart and precipitated differences which are reacting against the cause which these two papers chiefly exist to champion. It is not to be expected that the modifications which may be secured will conform to the lines laid down by Mr. Blair, but without doing so they may very well improve the position of the public interests in the bargain.

It is accepted as a foregone conclusion that the opposition will for once oppose the government policy, and with the aid of the C. P. R. and McKenzie & Mann will make the fight of their lives against the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme. There is an undertone of rumor that, as in the case of the Yukon railway deal, the final fight will take place in the senate and that the small Liberal majority now held in the Senate may be weakened by division to compass the defeat of the project. If this occurred it is more than likely that the government would appeal to the country, and in view of its popularity and the desirability of the next election take place on the basis of the redistribution bill, the policy of the government might be to push that bill on ahead of the Grand Trunk Pacific. For his reasons the probable policy of the opposition will be to try to make it in order that the Grand Trunk bill may reach its final stages first. All this means further delay of business and places the date of the end of the session outside of calculation.

The railway committee for the past three or four meetings has been the scene of most animated discussion, on the incorporation of the Canadian Telephone company. The principal applicants for incorporation are certain millionaires of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, with whom are associated some influential Canadians, including a sprinkling of members of parliament. The purpose in seeking a Dominion charter as stated is to put this company in a position to compete with the Bell Telephone monopoly throughout Canada. It seems to be acknowledged that the company have the necessary funds to establish effective competition with the Bell people, and the only question for the consideration of the committee was whether they should be given the privilege of entering into such competition. At first look it would appear that there could be no reason offered against the incorporation asked for; but as in the case of the Grand Trunk Pacific charter, it was marvelous how many reasons could be found to delay and if possible, prevent the desired incorporation. The discussion was kept up day after day by members, who, while declaring themselves distinctly against telephone monopoly, by their action were making themselves the means whereby the monopoly was to be maintained. It became evident, however, that the weight of public opinion was so strongly against the principle of monopoly in general, and particularly against the Bell monopoly, that the bill had to go through. The great objection that was made against telephone competition was that by compelling business men to subscribe to two telephone systems instead of only one, it became a nuisance and therefore should not be encouraged. Partly to get over this objection and partly to make this proposed new company an effective means of breaking down the present telephone monopoly, a provision was inserted in the bill at the request of Clarke, of Toronto, to compel this company to exchange business with other telephone companies who desired to exchange with it and to divide the rates on such business. This provision was opposed both by the Bell company and by those of the new partisans and by those of the new company. A motion to strike out the whole provision was defeated and an amendment carried to change it so that instead of the company being compelled to enter into such arrangements it was merely permitted to do so. It is expected that the fight will be continued in the House when the bill reaches that stage.

FROM OTTAWA

July 23, 1903.

Bulletin Correspondence.

Yesterday's proceedings in the House were chiefly an avowal of policy by the opposition to hold up business until the Grand Trunk Pacific proposals are brought forward. There were some lively passages between the leader of the opposition and the premier, each one blaming the other for delaying business and both establishing their points with considerable force. The premier made no definite promise as to when the proposals would be made, but suggested the possibility of Friday that is, tomorrow. The redistribution bill, which was expected on Monday last, has not yet appeared and it is possible that the opposition members on that committee may be impeding the work on that measure so as to give the Grand Trunk proposals precedence. In any case business has been at a standstill for the past two days.

A somewhat notable incident of yesterday was the charge made by Mr. Monk, French leader of the opposition, against Mr. Loy, Liberal member for Beulah, of having sold a post office site to the government. Mr. Loy denied that he knew the government had any interest in the sale. Mr. Tarte, ex-minister of Public Works, assumed the whole responsibility for the transaction. He had found that Mr. Loy's property was the only suitable site for a post office procurable in Valleyfield at any reasonable price. With field at Mr. Loy he employed a firm of real estate agents in Montreal to make the purchase. The matter was referred to a committee of the House for further consideration.

There are rumors of cabinet changes resulting from the retirement of Hon. Mr. Blair. One of the rumors which has received currency through the columns of the Ottawa Free Press, the Liberal organ which recently passed under new management, is that Hon. Mr. Sifton may become Minister of Railways, with Senator Templeman as Minister of Interior. This rumor gives color to one which prevailed about a year ago that when Hon. James Ross resigned the Governorship of the Yukon to become a member of parliament, it was with the expectation of ultimately entering the cabinet as Minister of Interior. It is now taken for granted that the condition of his health does not permit his assuming such a burdensome office, and that Senator Templeman, who is already a minister without portfolio, is the next choice. Mr. Ross has returned to Ottawa from a long holiday in the West and the present report is that he will succeed Lieutenant Governor Forget on the expiration of his term this fall.

Amongst the government measures which have been before the House for some time and with which no progress has been made, is the resolution to authorize the payment of a bounty on Manila fibre imported from the Philippine Islands for the manufacture of binder twine. At present binder twine is admitted into Canada free of duty and in order that the twine manufacturers of Canada should not be at a disadvantage in the cost of producing twine as against their competitors in the United States, all the materials used in the manufacture of twine are admitted into Canada free of duty. Notwithstanding the fact that the Canadian twine factories have been paying tremendous dividends for several years past, an effort has been made to have a duty placed upon binder twine. One of the pleas for this duty was that although Canadian factories were allowed to import their raw materials free they were still at a disadvantage as compared with United States factories because of an export duty on Manila fibre imposed by the United States government. This duty is of course imposed by the United States government for the express purpose of giving United States factories an advantage, and it was evident that if the original intentions of placing Canadian manufacturers of twine in a position to produce as cheaply as those of the United States, it was necessary that the export duty which the Manila fibre they had to use was compelled to pay, would have to be refunded to them. This is provided for by the resolution, the amount of refund or bounty being three-eighths of a cent a pound, which is the amount of the United States export duty. The proportion of real Manila fibre used is so small that the amount of the bounty will be inconsiderable and it will remove the only argument that the twine manufacturers had in favor of an import duty. It may be said that the government should not have considered the representation made by the twine manufacturers but on the other hand their representations and considering those representations and dealing with them while leaving the twine manufacturers without ground of complaint, leaves no excuse for an increase in the cost of twine, which is the important consideration.

HORSE HILLS

Johns Franqueville has returned from Calgary and will in the future reside with Mr. and Mrs. E. Coley.

Mr. Clark, who has been visiting his son, Wm. Clark, the past few weeks, returned to his home near Medicine Hat on Friday last.

Sydney Meason and N. Meason have taken the contract to build a new bridge over Charles Creek at the Halfway corner.

Berries of all descriptions are very plentiful this summer, the prairie being fairly covered with them.

H. Borgwardt has been unable to attend to his business lately owing to an attack of rheumatism, with which he has been burdened for some time.

Walter Hasty has sold his famous saddle horse Rex, to Mr. Wm. Ross, of the Halfway. Walter's latest acquisition is a wild and woolly broncho, from the plains of Calgary.

Rev. G. W. Sparling has changed his residence from Horse Hills to Belmont and is now residing with the Messrs. Harvey, having the missions of Horse Hills, Belmont and Turnip Lake to attend. Mr. Sparling is now more conveniently located than heretofore.

A royal banquet was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Coley on Sunday last in honor of the national holiday of France, July 14th. A large and enthusiastic gathering from Edmonton were present and all enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Work on the new school building is progressing favorably. The structure has been erected on a substantial foundation of stone, and Mr. Hall is confident that the building will be finished in time for the opening of school after vacation.

Another important real estate deal has just taken place. Tom Lablanc having sold his farm recently, has purchased the farm of Chas. White, for which he paid the handsome figure of $2,000. Mr. White will in the future reside on his farm at Walker's Flat.

The district has at last received an order from Mr. B. Secord, M.L.A., for $300 to be expended on the roads. A meeting was held on Saturday evening last, at which it was decided to use the money for repairing several bad spots on the main road and other places.

Mr. Wm. Ross has leased the Halfway hotel to R. H. Cronin, who arrived from Chicago lately, and is one of the pioneers of Winnipeg and proprietor of the first hotel erected at that place in the early seventies. Extensive improvements are to be made at the Halfway. A large and commodious barn will be erected this fall. Chas. Booth, of Edmonton, is at present engaged in hanging wall paper in the rooms on the ground floor.

A runaway accident took place here last Monday evening, which fortunately resulted in nothing more than a broken buggy wheel. A team attached to a democrat were standing beside the Halfway hotel, when Mr. Shilleto in a single buggy drove quickly past. The rig had passed but a few yards, when suddenly without any apparent reason, the team started and a dead run down the hill, overtaking the buggy just as it reached the bridge. Being unable to pass the buggy at this point, the speed of the democrat was somewhat slackened and the catastrophe occurred when each of the team horses tried to pass the rig on their respective sides. The pole remained a hole into the end of the buggy and at the same time the high horse put his front feet into the hind wheel, wrenching it completely off the buggy. But for the meeting of the two vehicles on the bridge and the presence of mind displayed by Mr. Shilleto in urging his horse forward at the time, a more serious accident would undoubtedly have taken place.

July 24th.

VEGREVILLE

On Thursday, July 16th, the father of Dr. Rush died after a comparatively short illness. About the middle of May last Mr. Rush left Ontario for Vegreville and it was thought by his medical advisers in the east that the Alberta atmosphere would be highly beneficial for him, but after only a short residence here, he gradually grew weaker and death claimed him at 2 p.m. on Thursday. The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. B. Schwahn, one of our most enterprising citizens, has been awarded the contract for fencing the school grounds and also for supplying the school with wood.

Several are expecting that coal will be in demand within a year. We are informed that Mr. B. Huxley has offered five dollars for the largest piece of coal to be found in the Vermilion valley the piece to be placed on exhibition at our agricultural fair to be held at Vegreville in October.

Coal has been found four miles down the Vermilion, northeast of here. Our school session commences July 27th and ends Aug. 21st.

The school at Spring Creek is ready for a teacher, but no teacher is at present available. We hope that the trustees who have been exceedingly industrious in having their school district organized and schoolhouse built, will soon be able to secure the services of one of the best teachers to be found.

Mr. Hawthorne, of the Grand Cantral, is in town on special business this week.

A post-office has been granted to the Sickman's Lake country, to commence operations next October. We understand that applications have been sent in asking for a temporary present service, but it is doubtful whether this extra privilege will be granted. So soon as it is thought opportune the people of Birch Lake intend sending in an effective petition asking for a mail service from Vegreville also.

Mr. E. Pellerin's new residence in Vegreville will soon be completed. When finished it will be the finest in the Vermilion valley.

July 24th, 1903.

(From Another Correspondent)

There has never been a better outlook for good crops than at the present time. It has been a beautiful summer so far for everything to grow. The grain is nearly all headed out and farmers are looking forward to a bountiful harvest. It seems now as if many of them would have to pull down their barns and build greater, but we hope all will remember where their help comes from and will not say, "pull, take thine ease."

Mrs. Pringle who seems to be in the last stages of consumption, does not seem to get much better.

Our postmaster and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a new baby girl. Mr. Dubuc and wife also have a baby girl, and Mr. Flemming and wife are rejoicing over their first-born.

Mr. E. Dennis is erecting a new barn on his C. P. R. quarter, it is 36x60 feet and has a well of good water in it. Mr. Piltahier is building a fine barn and house.

Frank and Glen Dennis are each erecting large granaries and hope to get them full this fall.

Miss Pearl Stonehewer gave us a surprise two weeks ago. She went with her folks to Edmonton and came back a bride. A young gentleman from Dakota met her there and they got married and came back to Stonehewer's, but they expect to leave for Dakota in a few days. We are all sorry to part with the young lady, but such is life here in the Northwest.

Winnipeg Markets

Commercial, July 25th.

Oats—Receipts are ample for all the demand. There is no shipping movement as eastern markets have declined to a point which does not compare favorably with Winnipeg prices. Local buyers are only taking out as they need them. A bull feature at present is the reports of damage to the Manitoba crop from rust. It is freely asserted that in a number of important districts rust is attacking the crop. Local buyers pay 32c per bushel for carloads of No. 1 white, on track here, and 31c for 2 white, on track here. Feed grade, 29c to 30c. At Fort William No. 1 white oats are worth 31 3/4c per bushel; No. 2 white, 30 3/4c.

Barley—There is practically nothing doing in this grain. Shippers are quoting 38 1/2c for No. 3, and 37 1/2c to 38c, for feed, in store, Fort William. Local merchants would pay 32c to 34c for feed barley on the street here, and about 1c more on the track.

Wheat.—The trade in Manitoba wheat continues to be of trifling amount as the old wheat is well cleaned up. There is a little demand for 1 hard and 1 northern for immediate or early delivery, and the price is well sustained. During the week the prices have run from 83 1/4 to 84c for third in store Fort William and today we quote values, 1 hard, 83 3/4c; 1 northern, 82 1/4c; 2 northern, 79 1/2c; 3 northern, 74 1/2c; and No. 4 wheat, 68c. July or first half of August delivery in store Fort William and Port Arthur, 1 occasional trade is made for September delivery at 77 1/2c for 1 hard, 76 1/4c 1 northern in store Fort William.
